Hello there! Facebook posts best-of - Part 2

During the lockdown enforcement, a message was posted daily on Eliot's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/eliot.dinfopilote>, suggesting ways to improve language skills by practicing some English on a regular basis. Below is Part 2 of the compilation of the most noteworthy posts, covering the second half of the stay-at-home orders. The whole list of 50 messages is available at <https://anglais-pour-voler.com/practice/contents/>. You can use it as a guideline for daily practice.

Shelter-in-place Day 29

Hello there! So, it seems we are halfway through the ordeal: 4 weeks gone, 4 more weeks to go! 4 more weeks of lockdown mean 4 more Shelter-In-Place Special Edition Practice Papers, focused on phraseology and listening comprehension, to help you get ready for the FCL055 exam. Shelter-In-Place Special Edition n°1 and 2 are available at <https://anglais-pour-voler.com/practice/2020-pp-30-2/>. Look out for n°3 this Friday.

Shelter-in-place Day 37

Hello there! Dictionary.com is the site to visit if you feel like practicing a little English on a regular basis. Sign up for their various newsletters to expand painlessly your vocabulary, or to read interesting stuff about language and/or Anglo-Saxon culture. FWIW, and ICYMI, the general English corner of Practice Paper #17 at <https://anglais-pour-voler.com/practice/practice-2018/> refers to a dictionary.com's slideshow on texting acronyms. This post is not FYEO, and I hope you won't be TLDR. LOL!

Shelter-in-place Day 40

Hello there! Launch a family challenge over the weekend with a word cloud contest. Word clouds are fun to create, can be quite artistic, and help learn vocabulary. Visit the general English corner of Practice Paper #28 at <https://anglais-pour-voler.com/practice/practice-2019/> to get all the information you need to download the free software to make your own. Here is a word cloud made with the text from Wikipedia's article on ... guess what!

Shelter-in-place Day 44

Hello there! From Flying's newsletter, read a World Meteorological Organization article about the importance of commercial aviation in the collection of weather data, and the impact of Covid19 on the process:

The map shows all the actors involved in the WMO's Global Observing System. Can you recognize the country over which it is drawn?

Shelter-in-place Day 45

Hello there! Runways were the main theme of PP #34 Shelter-In-Place Special Edition n°4, posted at <https://anglais-pour-voler.com/practice/2020-pp-30-2/> last Friday. For an illustra-

Available on the Appstore, the collection of «In English, please» articles with the audio recordings when available. The application has recently been updated with the articles up to May 2019, offering more than 140 pages of aviation-related English practice right at your fingertips.

tion of why runways can be dangerous, go to <https://www.bbc.com/news/world-us-canada-52481858> to read a piece of news linking a celebrity to the sensitive issue of runway incursion.

Shelter-in-place Day 48

Hello there! Remember Flyer, "The UK's favourite general aviation magazine"? Their newsletter has been advocated several times as an interesting tool to improve your English. Well, they are going digital and free! Find more about why, and sign up to get your free copies at <https://www.flyer.co.uk/flyer-magazine-to-go-digital-and-launch-the-flyer-club/>

Shelter-in-place Day 50

Hello there! It's Day 50, and the light at the end of the tunnel is getting closer! Still, there are 6 more days to go, 6 more days in lockdown to practice a little further. For example, you can consult the UK's Skyway Code at <https://www.caa.co.uk/General-aviation/Safety-information/The-Skyway-Code/> to find everything you need to know to plan a flight in the UK, and be ready to go as soon as the borders reopen.

Shelter-in-place Day 55

Hello there! Last Shelter-In-Place tip to work on your English from home: go to www.boldmethod.com and read 7 recommendations on radio communications etiquette, valid for all languages and countries: <https://www.boldmethod.com/learn-to-fly/radio-procedures/seven-radio-tips-from-an-atc-tower-controller/>
